In addition to coaching and classes geared towards creative students, The TEN Tenors have also facilitated 'role model' workshops designed to inspire and impact young males. The workshops encourage young men, often from disadvantaged socio-economic backgrounds without strong male role models, to dream beyond the world they know and achieve their personal goals. It can consist of an informal discussion in which the Tenors share stories from their varied and diverse backgrounds, or simply kick a football around, encouraging team spirit and camaraderie.
